PRECEDENTIAL OPINIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS
FILED MONDAY, JULY 1, 2024

A23-1657 State of Minnesota, Respondent, vs. Alan James Bear, Appellant.
Polk County District Court, Hon. Corey Harbott.

Minnesota Statutes section 609.045 (2020) does not bar the state from prosecuting the offense of fleeing a peace officer committed while in Minnesota when the defendant has been convicted of a similar offense committed while in North Dakota arising from the same course of conduct because the elements of both law and fact between the two offenses are not identical.

Affirmed. Judge Peter M. Reyes, Jr.

A23-1879 Thaleaha McBee, Appellant, vs. Team Industries, Inc, Respondent.
Becker County District Court, Hon. Michelle W. Lawson.

Minnesota Statutes section 268.19 (2022) bars the admission of any documents created by an employer for submission to Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development for the purpose of evaluating an unemployment-benefits claim in later civil, administrative, or judicial proceedings.

Affirmed. Judge JaPaul J. Harris.
