AMENDED ORDER SETTING
PUBLIC HEARING SCHEDULE

ORDER

By its order of July 18, 2011, the Special Redistricting Panel (the panel) expressed its intent to hold a series of public hearings throughout the state for purposes of giving members of the public the opportunity to provide the panel with facts, opinions, or concerns that may inform the redistricting process and of gathering information about Minnesota communities from Minnesota citizens.

The preservation of “communities of interest” is a well-established redistricting principle.<sup>1</sup> For purposes of redistricting, “communities of interest” have been defined to include, but are not limited to, “groups of Minnesota citizens with clearly recognizable similarities of social, geographic, political, cultural, ethnic, economic, or other interests.”<sup>2</sup> Therefore, the panel seeks public comment about communities of interest that should be identified and preserved in the redistricting process. This input will aid the panel in evaluating plans that will be submitted by the parties<sup>3</sup> and in establishing plans that will be adopted if the legislative and executive branches of government do not reach an agreement on redistricting by February 21, 2012, as required by Minn. Stat. § 204B.14, subd. 1a (2010).

<sup>3</sup> After the public hearings, the parties to this action will have the opportunity to provide the panel with additional proposed redistricting criteria. Once the redistricting criteria have been established, the panel will issue a scheduling order regarding the submission of the parties’ redistricting plans. This scheduling order will be issued in conjunction with the panel’s order stating redistricting principles.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that city, county, and other local officials, representatives of local community groups, and all interested members of the public residing anywhere in the State of Minnesota, are invited to comment on how they prefer their communities to be viewed during redistricting. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED:

1. Between 8:00 a.m. on Monday, September 12, 2011, and 4:30 p.m. on Friday, September 16, 2011, all persons who wish to make an oral presentation at one of the scheduled public hearings shall make a request to do so by calling the following toll-free number, 1-855-245-0849, and leaving a voice message. A requestor's voice message should include the following information: (1) the requestor's name (and spelling) and telephone number; (2) the group that he or she represents, if any; (3) the hearing location at which he or she would like to speak; and (4) any requests for foreign-language or sign-language interpreting services. Requests will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis.

2. Each speaker at the hearing will have five minutes to speak. A speaker will not be permitted to make more than one oral presentation. To determine whether a request to make an oral presentation has been granted, please call 1-855-245-0849 or visit the panel's website, located at <http://www.mncourts.gov/?page=4469>, on or after Wednesday, September 21, 2011, at 4:30 p.m. If the number of requests to make oral presentations exceeds the amount of time allocated for the hearing, persons may instead submit their comments in writing.

3. Any person who prefers not to make an oral presentation but wishes to provide input regarding the subject matter of these hearings may personally deliver one original and one copy of his or her written statement to a public hearing or send one original and one copy of the statement via United States Mail to Minnesota Special Redistricting Panel, c/o Bridget Gernander, Clerk of Appellate Courts, 305 Minnesota Judicial Center, 25 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard, Saint Paul, Minnesota 55155. Written statements also may be submitted by e-mail to the following address: StateRedistrictingPanel@courts.state.mn.us. Written statements must be received no later than Friday, October 21, 2011.

4. A person may submit to the panel no more than one redistricting plan for the United States House of Representatives, one plan for the Minnesota Senate, and one plan for the Minnesota House of Representatives. Each electronic redistricting plan must be in the form of a separate block-equivalency file. Each file must be in comma-delimited format (.csv) and include one field that identifies all census blocks in the state and another field for the district to which each census block has been assigned. E-mail attachments shall not exceed 30 megabytes per message.

5. The panel will give full consideration to both oral and written statements.

6. Maps of the existing congressional and state legislative districts will be available at each hearing. The existing congressional districts may be viewed online at <http://www.gis.leg.mn/html/cong02.html>. The existing state legislative districts may be viewed online at <http://www.gis.leg.mn/html/leg02.html>.

7. Links to more information about the public hearings are available on the panel's website, located at <http://www.mncourts.gov/?page=4469>.
