Facts about the parties, their activities, properties, motives, and intent, the facts that give rise to the controversy are adjudicative facts. . . . Legislative facts involve questions of law and policy and normally are decided by the court. See Beaudette v. Frana, 285 Minn. 366, 372, 173 N.W.2d 416, 419, 420 (1969) where the court notices the effect which various courses of conduct might have upon the integrity of the marriage relationship. . . . A court shall take judicial notice if requested by a party and supplied with the necessary information. E. OPPORTUNITY TO BE HEARD. 	27.02 Rule of Evidence 201 – Judicial Notice of Adjudicative Facts (continued) Comment: The Comment to Rule of Evidence 201 provides as follows: "The opportunity to be heard is a mainstay of procedural fairness. This right is protected by the rule. If the limits imposed upon the judicial notice by subdivision (b) of this rule are properly observed, there should be relatively little controversy concerning the right to be heard. The shape of the hearing on the issue of judicial notices rests in the discretion of the trial judge. F. TIME OF TAKING NOTICE. Judicial notice may be taken at any stage of the proceeding.	Minn. R. Evid. 201(e) (Committee Comment) Minn. R. Evid. 201(f)
