STATE OF MINNESOTA
COUNTY OF CARVER*In Re: Estate of*Prince Rogers Nelson, Decedent.*FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT
DISTRICT COURT
PROBATE COURT DIVISION*Court File No. 10-PR-16-46*REPLY MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PETITION REQUESTING SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR TO PROVIDE DOCUMENTATION AND OTHER RELIEF*INTRODUCTION

Despite repeated requests and attempts at resolution, the Special Administrator (and now the Personal Representative) has refused to provide documentation demonstrating that Petitioner's purported removal as Manager of NPG Music Publishing, LLC ("NPG Music") and as officer of NPG Records, Inc., Paisley Park Enterprises, Inc., and Lotus Flower, LLC was legally effective. Instead, the Special Administrator put up extreme resistance to the request, going so far as to force Petitioner to seek assistance from this Court to confirm that her removal was proper. The Special Administrator did not even attach the documentation to its response for the Court's review to enable the Court to make a determination regarding the effectiveness of her removal. Instead, the Special Administrator has opposed the petition, ignoring the practical problems that arise if the removal was not effective and instead arguing that Petitioner is not entitled to the documentation.

The reasons for the resistance are now clear. Petitioner recently obtained a copy of the corporate resolution purportedly removing her from her position as Manager of NPG Music. It appears that Petitioner was not effectively removed and the Special Administrator has not done anything to show the Resolution was corrected or that the removal was proper. Rather than address the error with Petitioner, the Special Administrator has played a game of hide the ball, perhaps believing that by ignoring the issue it would disappear. However, the issue cannot be ignored. The implications of failing to legally remove Petitioner from her position as Manager of NPG Music are potentially enormous. As Manager of NPG Music, Petitioner had the exclusive authority to act on behalf of NPG Music. According to the NPG Music Operating Agreement, the Members had no power to participate in the management of NPG Music. Rather, that power was reserved for the Manager. Consequently, if Petitioner's removal was not effective, the Special Administrator had no power to take any action on behalf of NPG Music.

A. The Resolution is Not Correct.

Petitioner's removal was purportedly accomplished by Resolution with an effective date of April 27, 2016, entitled "Resolutions of the Sole Member of NPG Music Publishing, LLC Adopted by Written Consent". A copy of the Resolution is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The Resolution provides "Prince Rogers Nelson was the sole member of the Company." The Resolution further provides "Special Administrator in its capacity as sole member hereby removes any existing Manager of the Company." The problem is that Mr. Nelson was not the sole member of NPG Music as presumed by the Resolution. Rather, Petitioner is aware that Paisley Park Enterprises, Inc. was also a member of NPG Music pursuant to resolution dated June 13, 2014, attached to Petitioner's Petition as Exhibit A.

Through this Petition, Petitioner seeks to ensure that she is protected from liability for any actions taken by the Special Administrator on behalf of NPG Music since Mr. Nelson's death. As this Court is aware, the Special Administrator's actions have already been challenged by two of the heirs. A claim related to the Special Administrator's actions on behalf of NPG Music has also been filed by ROC Nation, LLC. In addition, according to media accounts, it appears actions have been taken by the Special Administrator on behalf of NPG Music that are contrary to Petitioner's understanding of existing agreements. Petitioner should not be in limbo, left to wonder whether someone will seek to hold her responsible for those actions.

Petitioner respectfully requests the following relief:

1. An Order declaring that Petitioner was legally and effectively removed as Manager from NPG Music Publishing, LLC as of May 2, 2016, and requiring the Special Administrator and Personal Representative to indemnify Petitioner for any and all actions taken by the Special Administrator or Personal Representative on behalf of NPG Music Publishing, LLC, or Petitioner's alleged failure to act on behalf of NPG Music Publishing, LLC; or
2. An Order requiring the Personal Representative to take action to effectively remove Petitioner as Manager of NPG Music Publishing, LLC, and requiring the Special Administrator and Personal Representative to indemnify Petitioner for any and all actions taken by the Special Administrator or Personal Representative on behalf of NPG Music Publishing, LLC, or Petitioner's alleged failure to act on behalf of NPG Music Publishing, LLC; and
3. Ordering the Personal Representative and/or Special Administrator to pay Petitioner's attorneys' fees and costs associated with this dispute; and
4. Granting such other and further relief as may be proper.
