VACANCY

COURT APPOINTED ATTORNEY – FAMILY

Washington County District Court, Tenth Judicial District, State of Minnesota, has an immediate opening for a court appointed attorney as follows:

Provide legal counsel and representation when appointed by the Court in actions for paternity and child support contempt cases to those who do not have private attorneys and who are deemed indigent by the Court. Representation in paternity actions will be for all issues necessary for the initial establishment of parentage, including child support, custody, parenting time, and name of the child. Representation in child support contempt includes resolution of the contempt. Also, civil contempt matters may be covered by this contract infrequently.

One attorney is currently under contract for 2/3 of the caseload. This contract position would handle the other 1/3 of the caseload. The total caseload is approximately 300 cases annually. The contract amount will be $1,837.50 per month for approximately 1/3 of the caseload.

Letters of interest and resumes should be received by May 5, 2017 at 4:30 p.m. and sent to the attention of the Court Administrator, Annette Fritz, at 14949 62 Street North, Stillwater, MN 55082-3802. A screening process will include review of resumes and applicable paternity and child support legal work. An interview may be conducted.
