

STATE OF MINNESOTA

DISTRICT COURT

COUNTY OF CARVER

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT
PROBATE DIVISIONCase Type: Special Administration
Judge Kevin W. Eide

In the Matter of:

Court File Number: 10-PR-16-46

Estate of Prince Rogers Nelson,

CLAIRE ELISABETH NELSON'S MEMORANDUM REGARDING THE MATTER OF HER NAMEDecedent.

I, Claire Elisabeth Nelson, submit this memorandum to clarify the matter of my name.

In the United States of America, one can use only one legal name. What makes a name legal is its appearance upon the corresponding person's valid identification. A current driver's license and social security card are examples of such valid identification.

Upon both my current driver's license and social security card appears my legal maiden name: Claire Elisabeth Elliott. Although Claire Elisabeth Nelson is the legal name of the legal Wife and sole Heir of Prince Rogers Nelson, it is not a name I have used for any other purpose other than opening a joint bank account with Prince Rogers Nelson at Bremer Bank, National Association and paying myself through this joint bank account at Bremer Bank, National Association. It was my misunderstanding that if I listed Claire Elisabeth Nelson first upon a legal document or as one of the names that I am also known as (a/k/a) along with my legal name: Claire Elisabeth Elliott, everything would be completely legal. However, my experience thus far in this probate case clearly indicates that this is not the case.

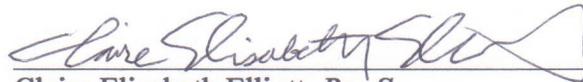

I ask the Court to forgive me for all my misunderstanding of the way that the law works and request that the Court completely disregard both my Affidavit of Heirship and Demand for Notice which I have submitted that list Claire Elisabeth Nelson, first. In place of this Affidavit of Heirship and Demand for Notice which I submitted on July 23, 2016, I ask the Court to consider my latest Affidavit of Heirship which I submitted on September 26, 2016 in my legal name: Claire Elisabeth Elliott, a/k/a Claire Elisabeth Nelson; I also ask that the Court consider both my Demand for Notices which I submitted on August 30, 2016 (accepted, but not posted) and September 26, 2016 in my legal name: Claire Elisabeth Elliott, a/k/a Claire Elisabeth Nelson in place of my previous Demand for Notice which I submitted on July 23, 2016. When listing me within the notification list, I ask further that the Court list Claire Elisabeth Elliott in lieu of any other of the names that I have used previously.

Please also note the correct spelling of Claire Elisabeth Elliott and Claire Elisabeth Nelson (not Claire Elizabeth Elliot and Claire Elizabeth Nelson). As the Court is fully aware of, a misspelled name and its correctly spelled version are two distinct legal entities in a court of law.

Most respectfully submitted,

Dated: September 29, 2016

Claire Elisabeth Elliott, Pro Se
a/k/a Claire Elisabeth Nelson
2801 Washington Road, Suite 107, #339
Augusta, Georgia 30909

