

STATE OF MINNESOTA

IN SUPREME COURT

CX-89-1863

PROMULGATION OF AMENDMENTS
TO THE MINNESOTA GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE

ORDER

WHEREAS, the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Implementation Committee filed a report with this Court that recommended amendments to the Minnesota General Rules of Practice and the creation of an ADR review board, and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court held a hearing on the proposed amendments on November 17, 1993, and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court has reviewed the recommendations and is fully advised in the premises,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The attached amendments creating Rule 114 and amending certain other rules of the Minnesota General Rules of Practice be, and the same hereby are, prescribed and promulgated for the regulation of practice and procedure in the courts of the State of Minnesota. These amendments shall become effective on July 1, 1994, and shall supercede Second Judicial District Local Rules 5 and 25 and Fourth Judicial District Local Rule 5 to the extent inconsistent therewith.
2. The inclusion of Implementation Committee comments is made for convenience and does not reflect court approval of the comments made therein.
3. A Supreme Court ADR Review Board is hereby established, effective January 1, 1994. The Board shall be dissolved on or before January 1, 1995. The Board shall be comprised of seven (7) members, including representatives of the following groups:
 - (a) Judge
 - (b) Court ADR Program Director

(c) ADR Sole Practitioner

(one from metropolitan area; one from Greater Minnesota)

(d) Director, For-Profit ADR Organization

(e) Director, Non-Profit ADR Organization

(f) Attorney.

The Board shall use Forms 114.01 and 114.02 in substantially the form attached to this order.

DATED: December 2, 1993

MINNESOTA GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE

RULE 114. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Rule 114. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

RULE 114.01 Applicability

All civil cases are subject to Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) processes, except for those actions enumerated in Minn. Stat. § 484.76 and Rule 111.01 of these rules.

RULE 114.02 Definitions

The following terms shall have the meanings set forth in this rule in construing these rules and applying them to court-affiliated ADR programs.

- (a) ADR Processes
 - (1) Arbitration: A forum in which each party and its counsel present its position before a neutral third party, who renders a specific award. If the parties stipulate in advance, the award is binding and is enforceable in the same manner as any contractual obligation. If the parties do not stipulate that the award is binding, the award is not binding and a request for trial de novo may be made.
 - (2) Consensual Special Magistrate: A forum in which a dispute is presented to a neutral third party in the same manner as a civil lawsuit is presented to a judge. This process is binding and includes the right of appeal.
 - (3) Early Neutral Evaluation (ENE): A forum in which attorneys present the core of the dispute to a neutral evaluator in the presence of the parties. This occurs after the case is filed but before discovery is conducted. The neutral then gives a candid assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of the case. If settlement does not result, the neutral helps narrow the dispute and suggests guidelines for managing discovery.
 - (4) Mediation: A forum in which a neutral third party facilitates communication between parties to promote settlement. A mediator may not impose his or her own judgment on the issues for that of the parties.
 - (5) Mediation - Arbitration (Med-arb): A hybrid of mediation and arbitration in which the parties initially mediate their disputes; but if they reach impasse, they arbitrate the deadlocked issues.
 - (6) Mini-Trial: A forum in which each party and their counsel present their position, either before a selected representative for each party, ~~or~~ before a neutral third party, ~~or both~~ to define the issues and develop a basis for realistic settlement negotiations. A neutral third party may issue an advisory opinion regarding the merits of the case. The advisory opinion is not binding unless the parties agree that it is binding and enter into a written settlement agreement.

- (7) Moderated Settlement Conference: A forum in which each party and their counsel present their position before a panel of neutral third parties. The panel may issue a non-binding advisory opinion regarding liability, damages, or both.
- (8) Neutral Fact Finding: A forum in which a dispute, frequently one involving complex or technical issues, is investigated and analyzed by an agreed-upon neutral who issues findings and a non-binding report or recommendation.
- (9) Summary Jury Trial: A forum in which each party and their counsel present a summary of their position before a panel of jurors. The number of jurors on the panel is six unless the parties agree otherwise. The panel may issue a non-binding advisory opinion regarding liability, damages, or both.

(b) Neutral

A "neutral" is an individual or organization who provides an ADR process. A "qualified neutral" is an individual or organization included on the State Court Administrator's roster as provided in Rule 114.13. An individual neutral must have completed the training and continuing education requirements provided in Rule 114.12. An individual neutral provided by an organization also must meet the training and continuing education requirements of Rule 114.12. Neutral fact-finders selected by the parties for their expertise need not undergo training nor be on the State Court Administrator's roster.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

The definitions of ADR processes that were set forth in the 1990 report of the joint Task Force have been used. No special educational background or professional standing (e.g., licensed attorney) is required of neutrals.

RULE 114.03 Notice of ADR Processes

(a) Upon receipt of the completed Certificate of Representation and Parties required by Rule 104 of these rules, the court administrator shall provide the attorneys of record and any unrepresented parties with information about ADR processes available to the county and the availability of a list of neutrals who provide ADR services to the county.

(b) Attorneys shall provide clients with the ADR information.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

This rule is designed to provide attorneys and parties to a dispute with information on the efficacy and availability of ADR processes. Court personnel are in the best position to provide this information. A brochure has been developed, which can be used by court administrators to give information about ADR processes to attorneys and parties. The State Court Administrator's Office will maintain a master list of all qualified neutrals, and will update the list and distribute it annually to court administrators.

RULE 114.04 Selection of ADR Process

(a) After the filing of an action, the parties shall promptly confer regarding case management issues, including the selection and timing of the ADR process. Following this conference ADR information shall be included in the informational statement required by Rule 111.02.

(b) If the parties cannot agree on the appropriate ADR process, the timing of the process, or the selection of neutral, or if the court does not approve the parties' agreement, the court shall schedule a telephone or in-court conference of the attorneys and any unrepresented parties within thirty days after the due date for filing informational statements pursuant to Rule 111.02 to discuss scheduling and case management issues. If no agreement on the ADR process is reached or if the judge disagrees with the process selected, the judge may order the parties to utilize one of the non-binding processes, or may find that ADR is not appropriate; provided that any ADR process shall not be approved where it amounts to a sanction on a non-moving party.

(c) Within 90 days of the filing of the action, the court's Rule 111.03 Scheduling Order shall designate the ADR process selected, the deadline for completing the procedure, and the name of the neutral selected or the deadline for the selection of the neutral. If ADR is determined to be inappropriate, the Rule 111.03 Scheduling Order shall so indicate.

(d) Upon motion by any party, or on its own initiative, the court may, at any time, issue an order for any ADR process.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

Early case evaluation and referral to an appropriate ADR process has proven to facilitate speedy resolution of disputes, and should be encouraged whenever possible. Mandatory referral to a non-binding ADR process may result if the judge makes an informed decision despite the preference of one or more parties to avoid ADR. The judge shall not order the parties to use more than one non-binding ADR process. Seriatim use of ADR processes, unless desired by the parties, is inappropriate. The judge's authority to order mandatory ADR processes should be exercised only after careful consideration of the likelihood that mandatory ADR in specific cases will result in voluntary settlement.

RULE 114.05 Selection of Neutral

(a) If the parties are unable to agree on a neutral, or the date upon which the neutral will be selected, the court shall appoint the neutral at the time of the issuance of the scheduling order required by Rule 111.03.

(b) In appropriate circumstances, the court, upon agreement of the parties, may appoint a neutral who does not qualify under Rule 114.12 of these Rules, if the appointment is based on legal or other professional training or experience. This section does not apply when mediation or med-arb is chosen as the dispute resolution process.

(c) Any party or the party's attorney may file with the court administrator within 10 days of notice of the appointment of the qualified neutral and serve on the opposing party a notice to remove. Upon receipt of the notice to remove the court administrator shall immediately assign another neutral. After a party has once disqualified a neutral as a matter of right, a substitute neutral may be disqualified by the party only by making an affirmative showing of prejudice to the chief judge or his or her designee.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

Parties should consult the statewide roster for information on the educational background and relevant training and experience of the proposed neutrals. It is important that the neutrals' qualifications be provided to the parties so that the parties may make an informed choice. Unique aspects of a dispute and the preference of the parties may require special qualifications by the neutral.

Parties should have the ability, within reason, to choose a neutral with special expertise or experience in the subject matter of the dispute, even if they do not qualify under Rule 114.12, though it is anticipated that this will occur infrequently. Parties to mediation and med-arb processes must appoint an individual who qualifies under Rule 114.12.

RULE 114.06 Time and Place of Proceedings

(a) The court shall send a copy of its order appointing the neutral to the neutral.

(b) Upon receipt of the court's order, the neutral shall, promptly schedule the ADR process in accordance with the scheduling order and inform the parties of the date. ADR processes shall be held at a time and place set by the neutral, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(c) If the case is settled through an ADR process, the attorneys shall complete the appropriate court documents to bring the case to a final disposition.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

The neutral will schedule the ADR process date unless, the parties agree on a date within the time frame contained in the scheduling order. If the neutral is selected at the time of scheduling order, such order can serve as the court order appointing the neutral. In scheduling the ADR process the neutral will attempt to accommodate the parties' schedules.

Rule 114.07 Attendance at ADR Proceedings

(a) Non-binding ADR processes are not open to the public except with the consent of all parties.

(b) The attorneys who will try the case may be required to attend ADR proceedings.

(c) Processes aimed at settlement of the case, such as mediation, mini-trial, or med-arb, shall be attended by individuals with the authority to settle the case, unless otherwise directed by the court.

(d) Processes aimed at reaching a decision in the case, such as arbitration, need not be attended by individuals with authority to settle the case, as long as such individuals are reasonably accessible, unless otherwise directed by the court.

(e) The court may impose sanctions for failure to attend a scheduled ADR process only if this rule is violated.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

Effective and efficient use of an ADR process depends upon the participation of appropriate individuals in the process. Attendance by attorneys facilitates discussions with clients about their case. Attendance of individuals with authority to settle the case is essential where a settlement may be reached during the process. In processes where a decision is made by the neutral, individuals with authority to settle need only be readily accessible for review of the decision.

RULE 114.08 Confidentiality

(a) Without the consent of all parties and an order of the Court, or except as provided in Rule 114.09(e)(4), no evidence that there has been an ADR proceeding or any fact concerning the proceeding may be admitted in a trial de novo or in any subsequent proceeding involving any of the issues or parties to the proceeding.

(b) Statements made and documents produced in non-binding ADR processes which are not otherwise discoverable are not subject to discovery or other disclosure and are not admissible into evidence for any purpose at the trial, including impeachment, except as provided in paragraph (d).

(c) Evidence in consensual special master proceedings, binding arbitration, or in non-binding arbitration after the period for a demand for trial expires, may be used in subsequent proceedings for any purpose for which it is admissible under the rules of evidence.

(d) Sworn testimony in a summary jury trial may be used in subsequent proceedings for any purpose for which it is admissible under the rules of evidence.

(e) Notes, records, and recollections of the neutral are confidential, which means that they shall not be disclosed to the parties, the public, or anyone other than the neutral.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

If a candid discussion of the issues is to take place, parties need to be able to trust that discussions held and notes taken during an ADR proceeding will be held in confidence.

This proposed rule is important to establish the subsequent evidentiary use of statements made and documents produced during ADR proceedings. As a general rule, statements in ADR processes that are intended to result in the compromise and settlement of litigation would not be admissible under Minn. R. Evid. 408. This rule underscores and clarifies that the fact that ADR proceedings have occurred or what transpired in them. Evidence and sworn testimony offered in summary jury trials and other similar related proceedings is not excluded from admissibility by this rule, but is explicitly treated as other evidence or as in the other sworn testimony or evidence under the rules of evidence. Former testimony is accepted from the hearsay rule if the witness is unavailable by Minn. R. Evid. 804(b)(1). Prior testimony may also be admissible under Minn. R. Evid. 613 as a prior statement.

RULE 114.09 Arbitration Proceedings

(a) Evidence

(1) Except where a party has waived the right to be present or is absent after due notice of the hearing, the arbitrator and all parties shall be present at the taking of all evidence.

(2) The arbitrator shall receive evidence that the arbitrator deems necessary to understand and determine the dispute. Relevancy shall be liberally construed in favor of admission. The following principles apply:

(i) Documents. The arbitrator may consider written medical and hospital reports, records, and bills; documentary evidence of loss of income, property damage, repair bills or estimates; and police reports concerning an accident which gave rise to the case, if copies have been delivered to all other parties at least 10 days prior to the hearing. Any other party may subpoena as a witness the author of a report, bill, or estimate, and examine that person as if under cross - examination. Any repair estimate offered as an exhibit, as well as copies delivered to other parties, shall be accompanied by a statement indicating whether or not the property was repaired, and if it was, whether the estimated repairs were made in full or in part, and by a copy of the receipted bill showing the items repaired and the amount paid. The arbitrator shall not consider any police report opinion as to ultimate fault.

- (ii) Other Reports. The written statement of any other witness, including written reports of expert witnesses not enumerated above and statements of opinion which the witness would be qualified to express if testifying in person, shall be received in evidence if: (1) copies have been delivered to all other parties at least 10 days prior to the hearing; and (2) no other party has delivered to the proponent of the evidence a written demand at least 5 days before the hearing that the witness be produced in person to testify at the hearing. The arbitrator shall disregard any portion of a statement received pursuant to the rule that would be inadmissible if the witness were testifying in person, but the inclusion of inadmissible matter does not render the entire statement inadmissible.
- (iii) Depositions. Subject to objections, the deposition of any witness shall be received in evidence, even if the deponent is not unavailable as a witness and no exceptional circumstance exist, if: (1) the deposition was taken in the manner provided for by law or by stipulation of the parties; and (2) not less than 10 days prior to the hearing, the proponent of the deposition serves on all other parties notice of the intention to offer the deposition in evidence.
- (iv) Affidavits. The arbitrator may receive and consider witness affidavits, but shall give them only such weight as they are entitled to after consideration of any objections. A party offering opinion testimony in the form of an affidavit, statement, or deposition, shall have the right to withdraw such testimony, and attendance of the witness at the hearing shall not then be required.

(3) Subpoenas shall issue for the attendance of witnesses at the arbitration hearing, as provided in Minn. R. Civ. P. 45. The party requesting the subpoena shall modify the form of the subpoena to show that the appearance is before the arbitrator and to give the time and place set for the arbitration hearing. At the discretion of the arbitrator, nonappearance of a properly subpoenaed witness may be grounds for an adjournment or continuance of the hearing. If any witness properly served with a subpoena fails to appear or refuses to be sworn or answer, the court may conduct proceedings to compel compliance.

(b) Powers of Arbitrator

The arbitrator has the following powers:

- (1) to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses;
- (2) to take adjournments upon the request of a party or upon the arbitrator's initiative;
- (3) to permit testimony to be offered by deposition;
- (4) to permit evidence to be introduced as provided in these rules;
- (5) to rule upon admissibility and relevance of evidence offered;
- (6) to invite the parties, upon reasonable notice, to submit pre-hearing or post-hearing briefs or pre-hearing statements of evidence;
- (7) to decide the law and facts of the case and make an award accordingly;
- (8) to award costs, within statutory limits;
- (9) to view any site or object relevant to the case; and
- (10) any other powers agreed upon by the parties.

(c) Record

- (1) No record of the proceedings shall be made unless permitted by the arbitrator and agreed to by the parties.
- (2) The arbitrator's personal notes are not subject to discovery.

(d) The Award

- (1) No later than 10 days from the date of the arbitration hearing or receipt of the final post-hearing memorandum, the arbitrator shall file with the court the decision, together with proof of service by first class mail on all parties.
- (2) If no party has filed a request for a trial within 20 days after the award is filed, the court administrator shall enter the decision as a judgment and shall promptly mail notice of entry of judgment to the parties. The judgment shall have the same force and effect as, and is subject to all provisions of law relating to, a judgment in a civil action or proceeding, except that it is not subject to appeal, and except as provided in section (d) may not be attacked or set aside. The judgment may be enforced as if it had been rendered by the court in which it is entered.

- (3) No findings of fact, conclusions of law, or opinions supporting an arbitrator's decision are required.
- (4) Within 6 months after its entry, a party against whom a judgment is entered pursuant to an arbitration award may move to vacate the judgment on only those grounds set forth in Minnesota Statutes Chapter 572.

(e) Trial after Arbitration

- (1) Within 20 days after the arbitrator files the decision with the court, any party may request a trial by filing a request for trial with the court, along with proof of service upon all other parties. This 20-day period shall not be extended.
- (2) The court may set the matter for trial on the first available date, or shall restore the case to the civil calendar in the same position as it would have had if there had been no ADR.
- (3) Upon request for a trial, the decision of the arbitrator shall be sealed and placed in the court file.
- (4) A trial de novo shall be conducted as if there had been no arbitration.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

The Committee made a conscious decision not to formulate rules to govern other forms of ADR, such as mediation, early neutral evaluations, and summary jury trials. There is no consensus among those who conduct or participate in those forms of ADR as to whether any procedures or rules are necessary at all, let alone what those rules or procedures should be. The Committee urges parties, judges and neutrals to be open and flexible in their conduct of ADR proceedings (other than arbitration), and to experiment as needed to suit the circumstances presented. The Committee recognized that it may be necessary, at some time in the future, to revisit the issues of rules, procedures or other limitations applicable to the various forms of court-annexed ADR.

Hennepin County and Ramsey County both have had substantial experience with arbitrations, and have developed rules of procedure that have worked well. The Committee has considered those rules, and others, in developing its proposed rules.

Subd. (a) of this rule is modeled after rules presently in use by the Second and Fourth Judicial Districts and rules currently in use by the American Arbitration Association.

Subd. (b) of this Rule is modeled after rules presently in use in the Second and Fourth Judicial Districts. In non-binding arbitration, the arbitrator is limited to providing advisory awards, unless the parties do not request a trial.

Subd. (c) of this Rule is modeled after rules presently in use in the Second and Fourth Judicial Districts. Records of the proceeding include records made by a stenographer, court reporter, or recording device.

Subd. (d) of this Rule is modeled after Rule 25 VIII of the Special Rules of Practice for the Second Judicial District.

RULE 114.10 Communication with Neutral

(a) The parties and their counsel shall not communicate ex parte with an arbitrator or a consensual special master.

(b) Parties and their counsel may communicate ex parte with the neutral in other ADR processes with the consent of the neutral, so long as the communication encourages or facilitates settlement.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

This Rule is modeled after Rule 25 VI of the Special Rules of Practice for the Second Judicial District.

RULE 114.11 Funding

(a) The neutral and the parties will determine the fee.

(b) The parties shall pay for the neutral. It is presumed that the parties shall split the costs of the ADR process on an equal basis. The parties may, however, agree on a different allocation. Where the parties cannot agree, the court retains the authority to determine a final and equitable allocation of the costs of the ADR process.

(c) If a party fails to pay for the neutral, the court may, upon motion, issue an order for the payment of such costs and impose appropriate sanctions.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

The marketplace in the parties' geographic area will determine the rates to be offered by neutrals for their services. The parties can then best determine the appropriate fee, after considering a number of factors, including availability, experience and expertise of the neutral and the financial abilities of the parties.

ADR providers shall be encouraged to provide pro bono and volunteer services to parties unable to pay for ADR processes. Parties with limited financial resources should not be denied access to an ADR process because of an inability to pay for a neutral. Judges and ADR providers should consider the financial abilities of all parties and accommodate those who are not able to share equally in costs of the ADR process. The State Court Administrator shall monitor access to ADR processes by individuals with limited financial resources.

RULE 114.12 Training

(a) All neutrals providing mediation, med-arb, or mini-trial services shall receive a minimum of 30 hours of classroom training, with an emphasis on experiential learning. The training must include the following topics:

- (1) Conflict resolution and mediation theory, including causes of conflict and interest-based versus positional bargaining and models of conflict resolution;
- (2) Mediation skills and techniques, including information gathering skills, communication skills, problem solving skills, interaction skills, conflict management skills, negotiation techniques, caucusing, cultural and gender issues and power balancing;
- (3) Components in the mediation process, including an introduction to the mediation process, fact gathering, interest identification, option building, problem solving, agreement building, decision making, closure, drafting agreements, and evaluation of the mediation process;
- (4) Mediator conduct, including conflicts of interest, confidentiality, neutrality, ethics, standards of practice and mediator introduction pursuant to the Civil Mediation Act, Minn. Stat. § 572.31.
- (5) Rules, statutes and practices governing mediation in the trial court system, including these rules, Special Rules of Court, and applicable statutes, including the Civil Mediation Act.

(b) The training outlined in subdivision 1 shall include a maximum of 15 hours of lectures and a minimum of 15 hours of role-playing.

(c) All neutrals serving in arbitration, summary jury trial, early neutral evaluation and moderated settlement conference processes or serving as a consensual special magistrate shall receive a minimum of 6 hours of classroom training on the following topics:

- (1) Pre-hearing communications between parties and between parties and neutral; and
- (2) Components of the hearing process including evidence; presentation of the case; witness, exhibits, and objectives; awards; and dismissals; and
- (3) Settlement techniques; and
- (4) Rules, statutes, and practices covering arbitration in the trial court system, including Supreme Court ADR rules, special rules of court and applicable state and federal statutes; or
- (5) Management of presentations made during early neutral evaluation procedures and moderated settlement conferences.

(d) Neutral fact-finders selected by the parties for their expertise need not undergo training nor be included on the State Court Administrator's roster.

(e) All mediators and neutrals conducting med-arb must attend 6 hours of continuing education about alternative dispute resolution subjects annually. All other neutrals must attend 3 hours of continuing education about alternative dispute resolution subjects annually. These hours may be attained through course work and attendance at state and national ADR conferences. The neutral is responsible for maintaining attendance records and shall disclose the information to program administrators and the parties to any dispute. The neutral shall submit continuing education credit information to the State Court Administrator's office on an annual basis.

(f) The State Court Administrator shall certify training programs which meet the training criteria of this rule.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

The training requirements are designed to emphasize the value of learning through experience. Training requirements can protect the parties and the integrity of the ADR processes from neutrals with little or no dispute resolution skills who offer services to the public and training to neutrals. These rules shall serve as minimum standards; individual jurisdictions may make requirements more stringent.

RULE 114.13 Credentials

The State Court Administrator shall review applications from those who wish to be listed on the roster of qualified neutrals and shall include those who meet the training requirements established in Rule 114.12. The roster shall be updated and published on an annual basis.

RULE 114.14 Exceptions

(a) Practicing neutrals on the effective date of these rules be placed on the roster of qualified neutrals without meeting the training requirements of these Rules. Any person acting as a neutral as of the effective date of these Rules shall have one year to apply. The Minnesota State Supreme Court ADR Review Board shall develop criteria for granting applications, which shall be based on education, training, and expertise of the applicants.

(b) Any neutral wishing to be placed on the roster of qualified neutrals after the Board has disbanded shall comply with the training requirements. However, application may be made to the Supreme Court for a waiver of the training requirement.

Implementation Committee Comments--1993

Some neutrals may be permitted to continue providing ADR services without completing the training requirements. A Board, made up of dispute resolution professionals, court officials, judges and attorneys, shall determine who qualifies.

Forms 114.01 and .02 attached to these Rules is to be used for application to the neutral and provider organization rosters.
