In the Matter of:

Court File No. 10-PR-16-46

Estate of Prince Rogers Nelson,

AFFIDAVIT OF LAURA E. HALFERTY

Decedent,

and

[Redacted]

Tyka Nelson,

Petitioner.

STATE OF MINNESOTA    )
                                  ) ss:
COUNTY OF HENNEPIN    )

I, Laura E. Halferty, being first duly sworn upon oath, attest as follows:

1. I am over the age of 18 years and competent to testify regarding the facts and matters stated herein, which are based on my personal knowledge.

2. I am an attorney admitted to practice in the State of Minnesota, and I am the lead attorney for Bremer Trust, N.A., Special Administrator for the Estate of Prince Rogers Nelson (the "Estate").

3. I have been practicing as a tax, trusts, and estates attorney for more than eighteen (18) years. I am a partner and Chair of the Tax, Trusts and Estates practice division at Stinson Leonard Street LLP.

4. On January 23, the Special Administrator (with input from and agreement of Comerica) prepared and filed the requisite state and federal estate tax filings [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and initial payment of $12 million.

5. Early in our engagement, Mr. Nelson's siblings and family made clear that it was very important to them to host some sort of tribute concert. After speaking with Bremer Trust, I responded to Mr. Nelson's family (through their counsel) that Bremer Trust was not in the concert business, and did not desire to take an active role in the tribute. I communicated to counsel for the family that they should plan the event themselves.

6. By late May of 2016, Tyka Nelson had one proposal for the family tribute concert and Alfred Jackson had a competing proposal. Ms. Nelson's then-counsel, attorneys at Gray Plant Mooty, called me and asked the Special Administrator to assist the family through the impasse, as the involved family members could not reach agreement.

7. Ultimately, the Special Administrator offered to ask its entertainment experts to opine on the proposals. Our team forwarded the two competing tribute proposals to L. Londell McMillan and Charles Koppelman (the "Advisors"). Mr. Koppelman then sought and received a third proposal from Jobu Presents.

8. I invited all potential heirs and their counsel to a meeting at our firm on June 30 to discuss the family tribute concert. My invitation email is attached as Exhibit A. My recollection is that Sharon Nelson, Norrine Nelson, Omarr Baker, and Tyka Nelson were there, but not John Nelson or Alfred Jackson. In addition, Steve Silton, Ken Abdo, and Frank Wheaton attended.

9. Following that meeting, I sent counsel for all potential heirs a summary of the tribute proposals that Mr. McMillan prepared. The Advisors had narrowed the options to two: Live Nation and Jobu Presents. Attached as Exhibit B is an email string in which I forward the summary and respond to questions from counsel.

10. Attached as Exhibit C is an email string between me and counsel for Mr. Nelson's family on July 5. In the late afternoon of July 5, I participated in a conference call with counsel for all family members to further discuss issues related to the tribute.

11. Because the Advisors found Jobu Presents an acceptable alternative to promote the family tribute concert, and Jobu pledged a higher guaranteed income to the Estate (which was then very short on cash), the Special Administrator chose to engage Jobu on July 7.

12. A short form letter of understanding was signed by the Estate and Jobu Presents on July 7. No subsequent formal agreement was ever executed.

13. Attached as Exhibit D is an email string between me and counsel for the family regarding potential dates suggested by Jobu for the tribute concert, as well as coordinating press statements.

14. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] At that point, the Advisors reached out to their connections to help secure performers. For example, it was Mr. McMillan who secured Stevie Wonder's performance at the tribute concert.

15. As of August 29, 2016, Jobu had already paid the Estate a [REDACTED] advance on the guarantee.

16. Between July 7 and August 19, when the Advisors were managing the tribute concert pursuant to the letter agreement with Jobu, I communicated with the Advisors multiple times per week (often with my partner, Traci Bransford). We discussed progress on the tribute concert at least once per week, with Stinson lawyers asking about which artists had agreed to perform and the status of the long-form agreement. Ken Abdo also called me periodically about the tribute. I understand that Mr. Abdo also reached out directly to the Advisors directly about the tribute concert, and he also asked me for the contact information for Jobu.

17. After Jobu terminated its involvement with the tribute concert, I understood that the family still wanted to proceed with a tribute. In an effort to rescue the concert, Mr. McMillan called multiple potential concert promoters to see if they would take over for Jobu. No national promoter agreed to do so. Finally, a local promoter suggested by Mr. Abdo (Rand Levy of Rose Productions) agreed to promote the concert along with Mr. McMillan.

18. Mr. McMillan's work as a co-promoter or producer of the October 13 tribute concert was outside the scope of his Advisor Agreement with the Estate. Attached as Exhibit E is a September 15, 2016, email from my partner Jill Radloff to Steve Sifton noting that "the Tribute, in its current form, is not an entertainment deal commissionable under the advisor agreement. The Special Administrator is not a party to any of these contracts nor is Mr. McMillan the Special Administrator's agent for purposes of this event given his co-promoter status."

19. The Estate was not a party to the contract that controlled the rights and obligations of the relevant parties with respect to the tribute concert that went forward on October 13, 2016, at the Xcel Energy Center. Attached as Exhibit F is an October 4, 2016, email confirming that the "Tribute Agreement [was] entered into by the Promoter (Rand's company, Rose Productions), the Heirs and Londell".

20. Attached as Exhibit G is an email from Adam Gislason to me on August 30, 2016.

21. Attached as Exhibit H is an email string between my team and counsel for the non-excluded heirs on August 30, informing them of Jobu's termination.

22. Attached as Exhibit I is an email and attachment I received from Adam Gislason on November 2, 2016, sharing the “final settlement statement” for the “official family tribute.”

23. Attached as Exhibit J is a September 9, 2016 letter from counsel for Jobu to the Special Administrator.

24. Attached as Exhibit K is an email string between counsel for Jobu and counsel for the Special Administrator, resulting in a “standstill agreement.”

25. The Special Administrator and our team at Stinson Leonard Street set up and used a [REDACTED] website to share confidential documents with NEH attorneys and others in a secure manner. A [REDACTED] webpage called “BTNA – Potential Beneficiaries & Counsel” was created on August 23, 2016, after the number of potential heirs decreased as a result of Court orders.

26. The “BTNA – Potential Beneficiaries & Counsel” webpage was used to share documents with NEH attorneys and directly with the NEH. The [REDACTED] software tracks every time a user accesses a document on the webpage.

27. Attached as Exhibit L is a report showing when lawyers (or other professionals) at Cozen O’Connor and Holland & Knight were invited to access the [REDACTED] page and the most recent date they accessed the page (before January 24, 2017).

28. Attached as Exhibit M is a report showing every instance of an authorized individual at Cozen O’Connor accessing documents available on the [REDACTED] page.

29. Attached as Exhibit N is a report showing every instance of an authorized individual at Holland & Knight accessing documents available on the [REDACTED] page.

30. The November statements for “Prince Tribute LLC” that were available on [REDACTED] as of December 9, 2016, reflected total deductions of [REDACTED].

31. The last time that Cozen O'Conner individuals requested technical help with [REDACTED] was on October 25, 2016.

32. During the January 12 hearing, Ms. Fasen testified that it is acceptable practice to list real estate at the tax-assessed value, that the reason for the double asterisk on some personal property is that the Special Administrator has not been able to locate title to those vehicles or other proof of ownership, that the "Compensation of Representatives is the Special Administrator's fee, and that "stocks bonds and other securities" were valued at $0 because the Special Administrator found no evidence that Mr. Nelson owned any publicly-traded securities.

33. During the January 12 hearing, Ms. Hauck testified that the real estate at 1119 Morgan Avenue N. was not owned by the Estate on the date of death.

34. During the January 12 hearing, Ms. Fasen also testified that Special Administrator and Jobu have reserved all rights with respect to potential claims arising from the July 7 Letter Agreement.

35. The most recent unpaid claims report on [REDACTED] is dated October 19, 2016, because the claims period for claims arising prior to death closed in September. In addition, the October 19, 2016, report is the updated version of the "paid invoices" report dated September 8, 2016.

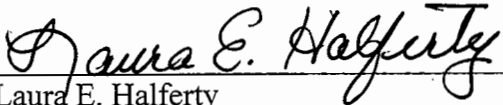

36. December 2016 bank statements for Decedent's entities were not available until approximately January 9, 2017, at which time neither Bremer Trust nor our firm was updating [REDACTED] in anticipation of a potential transition on January 12.

37. Ms. Fasen testified on January 12 that the monetization of the Estate's intellectual property can only be recorded on a probate accounting when there is actual income.

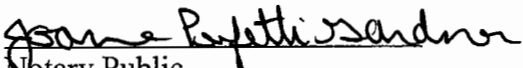

38. In my experience, accountings required in probate follow the same format as trust accountings; they are "checkbook accountings" that reflect actual income received and expenses paid by the estate.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

Hi Laura,

Thank you for your email. We have some follow-up questions concerning the Official Tribute Celebration proposals and the Special Administrator's strong recommendation. In light of the request that our clients' provide a response by the EOD today, could we have a conference call this afternoon, e.g., 2:30p CT, or whenever Londell/Charles are available after 2p CT? We plan to keep our questions and the discussion as focused and brief as possible.

Thank you.

Subject: FW: Official Tribute

Laura, et alia:

Thank you for the official tribute recommendations and summary. Our clients are not opposed to the September 24 date if there are compelling reasons to hold it then. You have noted some strong reasons for that later date. They are also wanting to preserve the August 12 family service date as well. Before they can respond, with a solid date and promoter preference, they would like to have some additional information. From calls I received from other heirs counsel today, I know these questions (and likely more) are shared by others. I am not certain that we can provide the response you request by tomorrow but we shall try if we can receive more information:

1. We need to know more about why Jobu Presents is recommended? We recall Jobu may have been solicited by Charles and Londell. We know of Jobu /VSM Media Group but there is little on line about them for us to share with our clients. We recommended the family consider JOBU/VSM which is a media holding company with a core focus on live events. Their proposal is very attractive in part because they are willing to go with a first class production company the SA and advisors will approve and the financial guarantee is too large to pass on.
2. We note that LiveNation is credited in the attachment summary as an "established and well-known production company" but Jobu is not. Is there an issue here? No. This is not an issue. See above.
3. The Jobu guarantee and splits are very good but is the bottom line to the estate likely to be better than what LiveNation can deliver? Yes, by all measures. The JOBU numbers are substantially better than any other proposed on both the guarantee and the splits.
4. We assume the guaranteed amount to the estate by both candidates is an advance against what might be a larger upside so [REDACTED] might not be a key deal point if the expected upside from both candidates exceeds this amount. Also, are we trading off a better upside position on other terms and revenue splits for a larger guarantee? Following the in-office meeting last week, we were hoping to see a more complete financial analysis. Please understand that the Estate's role is very desirably limited in this deal. We are not driving the day-to-day operations of this event nor are we incurring the risks of it. For these reasons we have negotiated sizable guarantees and the rights for approvals with respect to making sure the production is run in a first class manner and making sure the content is satisfactory. The [REDACTED] guarantee is a material deal point on this one time event. As you are all aware, the estate also needs the funds.
5. Is the [REDACTED] talent fee the total talent cap or is it a per act cap (given the potential superstar appearances with their support)? The [REDACTED] is cap talent fee for the [REDACTED] guarantee. Anything paid over this amount will come from the proposed advance.
6. Is there a TV production entity contemplated by each candidate or is that a separate engagement? For example, could Ken Ehrlich be engaged by either Jobu or LiveNation? Will the promoter be seeking competitive offers? The same applies to other principle vendors such as merchandise, etc. Will Londell and Charles negotiate and make recommendation in the selection of these vendors or is this process within the purview of the selected promoter? Whomever we select as the promoter will decide which television producer to utilize, subject to the Estate's approval. Competitive offers will be sought. Londell and Charles will certainly be involved in the decision making on TV and merchandising.
7. Are there consultancy fees to family in addition to revenues to the estate? Consultancy fees are certainly an important part of all options. [REDACTED]. We are prepared to have conversations with the family following the engagement of the promoter. In addition, to the extent that family members wish to engage in complementary activities surrounding the Tribute, we can help facilitate opportunities to do so.
8. Any charity component? With regard to the Estate component, no. We cannot distribute anything to charity as it is not a beneficiary of the Estate. It is my understanding that there will be some charitable component involved.

9. How will the consultant's (Charles and Londell) be paid on this event? Will they be paid a percentage of the pre-tax net revenues paid to the estate? Might they be paid on the promoter's side as a finder's fee? They will only be paid on revenues received by the estate under the deal.
10. Will SLS be negotiating the deal or another firm? What legal fees are expected to be paid by the estate? SLS on behalf of the SA, with the advice and counsel of our Advisors, will negotiate this deal with the Promoter. The Promoter will enter into all appropriate agreements with the venue and other parties as required. Legal fees are hourly.
11. Any allowances for travel/expenses for family? This is open for discussion but separate from this deal.
12. If the family service proceeds on Aug. 12, what is the budget that the estate will pay for the service? I have requested a proposed budget. What is the family thinking?

Also, our clients think that only established family ( the legally determined siblings) should have a say in this process and in this event. Therefore, only their representatives are copied on the email and their opinions are of course encouraged.

To expedite the process to meet or get close to your 24 hour family comment window, it may be best to schedule a phone conference with the heirs counsel (after consulting with their clients and submitting their questions) so that all questions can be fielded and your recommendation can be best understood. Adam and I are available tomorrow afternoon. Let us know how you wish to proceed.

Thank you again,

Subject: Official Tribute

Counsel,

Thank you for your time on Thursday to discuss the Official Tribute Celebration. We appreciated hearing the family's thoughts, goals and concerns regarding the planned Tribute. As promised, Mr. McMillan prepared the attached summary of the Tribute Options for your consideration. Mr. McMillan and Mr. Koppelman have narrowed down the options to two finalists: LiveNation and Jobu Presents. Please note that LiveNation has indicated it is unable to produce and promote the event by August 13th, 14th or 15th; therefore, its proposal would strictly be viewed as an Option for the September 24th alternative date.

Please understand that all promoters were very concerned about the ability to produce a successful, polished Tribute from a production, talent and ticket-selling standpoint. All producers agree that the Tribute will generate more return if it is done with more lead time (i.e. September 24th date). Notwithstanding the foregoing, we are respectful of the family's' desire to have it in August.

Upon review of the final options, the Special Administrator strongly recommends that the family consider the September 24th date to ensure appropriate preservation of the legacy of Mr. Nelson, ensure a polished and well attended Tribute and maximize revenue to the Estate. We welcome your thoughts and comments. We would like to have a decision made by end of day Tuesday so an official press release/announce can be made Wednesday.

Regards,
Laura Krishnan

OPTION 1: AUGUST 13, 2016 –JOBU PRESENTS*NOTE: The promoter prefers the 15th to the 13th and September 24th to either August date*Key Benefits:

1. The Event is close in time to the private family funeral
2. US BANK Stadium has confirmed availability
3. It would be the first event in US Bank Stadium
4. JOBU Presents will assume 100% of the risk on the show
5. A minimum guarantee of $ [REDACTED] (by far the largest guarantee offered for this event); this amount is subject to a talent cap of [REDACTED]
6. TV Rights & Sponsorships [REDACTED] Split in the Estate's favor
7. Merchandising [REDACTED] Estate
8. Concessions & Parking [REDACTED] Estate (Subject to Venue)

Issues/Risks:

To assist further in the tribute decision making, we doubled-back with our clients and confirm that the August 13th, 15th or the September 24th dates are all fine. What tips the scale to a particular date (in no particular order) is which date would: 1) deliver the best technical quality show befitting of Prince's standards, 2) the best and most appropriate artists, 3) the best financial results for the estate, and 4) the best legacy and estate value enhancement. We look to Charles and Londell to make a recommendation so that the tribute planning can progress.

Laura,

I am focusing on your statement, "Absent resolution by the parties, your issues and concerns will need to be placed before the Court for a decision as to how to proceed." If our clients are "parties" as set forth in your statement, please let us (and other parties) know what can be done to assist a "resolution." Our clients did not and do not object to the appointment of either or both consultants. We do not wish to have the tribute event, or any other functions undertaken by the Special Administrator and consultants, to be unnecessarily delayed. Though it was planned yesterday, the attorneys for the determined heirs conferenced this morning after Mr. Silton sent you his email below. He was on the call and we discussed his concerns. We also discussed other issues representatives raised in connection with the tribute so we could be best prepared to discuss the tribute with you later today in order to meet your deadline. We hope the situation can be rehabilitated so we can proceed with plans.

Thanks,

Subject: RE: Official Tribute

Steve,

We appreciate that you are new to this matter, but we ask that you review the procedural history and filings with the Court as to the entertainment industry experts. The hiring of the expert you challenge was presented to the Court in a sealed filing, with all parties of record having reviewed the sealed material. Objections were heard by the Court.

Considering the objections took time, but we respect the need for potential heirs to raise concerns, and will continue to do so. No objections were lodged by Omarr Baker, who represented himself at the time. In particular, no one raised the allegation that one of the experts had been "fired", let alone substantiate it with the particulars as to if the expert was at fault in any way. Thereafter, the Court authorized the Special Administrator to proceed to hire the experts, which we have done.

Now you are re-visiting that decision, and suggesting that proceeding with one of the experts would be improper -- in effect, a breach of the Special Administrator's fiduciary duty. Given the Court review and resulting Order, your communication attempts to place the Special Administrator in an untenable position. Proceeding at this juncture would also be unfair to the experts who have been devoting considerable time and energy for the benefit of the Estate. It is incumbent upon you to document your allegation for all to assess. Absent resolution by the parties, your issues and concerns will need to be placed before the Court for a decision as to how to proceed. The Special Administrator does not intend to commit the Estate with the concerns you raise unresolved.

FYI, we intend to discuss your concerns and our reply as part of the discussion at 4 p.m. today.

Subject: RE: Official Tribute

Laura,

Thanks for the summary regarding the Tribute. As you know, I am pretty new to this matter and working to get a handle on the many moving parts. That caveat aside, it concerns me that the Special Administrator and its counsel has been less than responsive to the desires of the family and presumptive heirs. A prime example of this is the Tribute, in which the families' desired experts have been replaced with an individual previously fired by the deceased.

In addition, the family has been consistent with its desire to have the Tribute early (August 13-15). It is disappointing that it seems that Mr. McMillan has been slow to secure the proper facility and related contracts, and that date may now be difficult. Moreover, I have concerns that the Special Administrator is not holding its experts accountable, and in fact has worked to shield them from accountability; i.e. refusing to allow a record of last week's meeting.

Logistically, my client would like August 15 to be the Tribute date. The reasons include the following:

- 1) Many people were relying on that date. The family Memorial is scheduled on the 12th.
- 2) Schools are still out of session during this time. It is easier to sell seats and travel if kids are still out of school.
- 3) The August date would be one of the first venues scheduled at the new Vikings Stadium. Emphasizing the historical nature of this event, and the iconic nature of Prince, the Tribute would be held at the new iconic stadium. Prince's brand and legacy deserves nothing less. The Stadium with purple seats would further emphasize Prince's connection with Minnesota.

Regardless of the date of the Tribute, my client would like the following considered:

- 1) Working with local and national travel partners to assure discount fares. This will reduce the risk of not selling out the stadium.
- 2) Maximizing profits by holding back the first 100 front row seats from ticket brokers at the start, then releasing these tickets later at a premium cost. This would minimize the potential of ticket brokers taking unfair advantage.
- 3) It is imperative we maximize our marketing and advertising budget, and utilize the hype surrounding the new Vikings Stadium. We need to do everything we can to build the hype for the Tribute. Every mention of the tribute could mention the US Bank Stadium and/or Vikings, and we should encourage the Vikings to simultaneously promote the Tribute.
- 4) Security expenses could be cut down by utilizing the same strategy. We should work with the Vikings with regard to security efficiency, and the Tribute will allow them a trial run on a sold out show.
- 5) Working with Minneapolis hotels as part of the Tribute. Prince fans should stay together to celebrate the life of Prince. This will allow for further free marketing.
- 6) Parking is always a problem downtown. Pre-paid parking should be sold and/or packaged in with Prince travel deals.

In addition to above, I join in the concerns expressed by Mr. Abdo. In particular, it is important to fully understand the full costs to the Estate, and how all parties, including Mr. McMillan, will be compensated. We hope and expect our concerns be addressed in the final Tribute proposal and look forward to reviewing the final proposal.

Truly,

Steve

Laura, et alia:

Thank you for the official tribute recommendations and summary. Our clients are not opposed to the September 24 date if there are compelling reasons to hold it then. You have noted some strong reasons for that later date. They are also wanting to preserve the August 12 family service date as well. Before they can respond, with a solid date and promoter preference, they would like to have some additional information. From calls I received from other heirs counsel today, I know these questions (and likely more) are shared by others. I am not certain that we can provide the response you request by tomorrow but we shall try if we can receive more information:

1. We need to know more about why Jobu Presents is recommended? We recall Jobu may have been solicited by Charles and Londell. We know of Jobu /VSM Media Group but there is little on line about them for us to share with our clients.
2. We note that LiveNation is credited in the attachment summary as an "established and well-known production company" but Jobu is not. Is there an issue here?
3. The Jobu guarantee and splits are very good but is the bottom line to the estate likely to be better than what LiveNation can deliver?
4. We assume the guaranteed amount to the estate by both candidates is an advance against what might be a larger upside so ██████████ might not be a key deal point if the expected upside from both candidates exceeds this amount. Also, are we trading off a better upside position on other terms and revenue splits for a larger guarantee? Following the in-office meeting last week, we were hoping to see a more complete financial analysis.
5. Is the ██████████ talent fee the total talent cap or is it a per act cap (given the potential superstar appearances with their support)?
6. Is there a TV production entity contemplated by each candidate or is that a separate engagement? For example, could Ken Ehrlich be engaged by either Jobu or LiveNation? Will the promoter be seeking competitive offers? The same applies to other principle vendors such as merchandise, etc. Will Londell and Charles negotiate and make recommendation in the selection of these vendors or is this process within the purview of the selected promoter?
7. Are there consultancy fees to family in addition to revenues to the estate?
8. Any charity component?
9. How will the consultant's (Charles and Londell) be paid on this event? Will they be paid a percentage of the pre-tax net revenues paid to the estate? Might they be paid on the promoter's side as a finder's fee?
10. Will SLS be negotiating the deal or another firm? What legal fees are expected to be paid by the estate?

11. Any allowances for travel/expenses for family?

12. If the family service proceeds on Aug. 12, what is the budget that the estate will pay for the service?

Also, our clients think that only established family ( the legally determined siblings) should have a say in this process and in this event. Therefore, only their representatives are copied on the email and their opinions are of course encouraged.

To expedite the process to meet or get close to your 24 hour family comment window, it may be best to schedule a phone conference with the heirs counsel (after consulting with their clients and submitting their questions) so that all questions can be fielded and your recommendation can be best understood. Adam and I are available tomorrow afternoon.

Let us know how you wish to proceed.

Thank you again,

Subject: Official Tribute

Counsel,

Thank you for your time on Thursday to discuss the Official Tribute Celebration. We appreciated hearing the family's thoughts, goals and concerns regarding the planned Tribute. As promised, Mr. McMillan prepared the attached summary of the Tribute Options for your consideration. Mr. McMillan and Mr. Koppelman have narrowed down the options to two finalists: LiveNation and Jobu Presents. Please note that LiveNation has indicated it is unable to produce and promote the event by August 13th, 14th or 15th; therefore, its proposal would strictly be viewed as an Option for the September 24th alternative date.

Please understand that all promoters were very concerned about the ability to produce a successful, polished Tribute from a production, talent and ticket-selling standpoint. All producers agree that the Tribute will generate more return if it is done with more lead time (i.e. September 24th date). Notwithstanding the foregoing, we are respectful of the family's desire to have it in August.

Upon review of the final options, the Special Administrator strongly recommends that the family consider the September 24th date to ensure appropriate preservation of the legacy of Mr. Nelson, ensure a polished and well attended Tribute and maximize revenue to the Estate. We welcome your thoughts and comments. We would like to have a decision made by end of day Tuesday so an official press release/announce can be made Wednesday.

Laura Krishnan

Counsel,

This e-mail is to update you on the Official Tribute. Jobu Presents is planning to publically announce the date of the Tribute tomorrow. In the course of finalizing the date, Jobu Presents learned that another date, September 29th, may be a better choice. We (including our business managers, Charles Koppelman and Londell McMillan) plan to discuss this with counsel (and family if available) at our interested party status update following our scheduled 8:00am conference call with the court. Below is a summary of the new considerations relevant to our discussion regarding this tomorrow.

September 25th:

We are competing for talent with the following events:

- (1) iHeartRadio weekend in Las Vegas and
- (2) The 2016 Global Citizen Festival that will be held on September 24th in Central Park.

September 29th

The positive aspects of the 29th are:

- (1) It is the start of the Ryder Cup which will bring more potential attendees to the area and presumably this event
- (2) There is a belief that the promoter may be able to secure additional national talent on this date because there are less competing events

We would also like to take this opportunity to inquire as to whether family members would be willing to provide the promoter with statements that could be used in the announcement and publicity of this event. If they are willing to do so, please provide said statement to Natasha Robertson by noon on 7/22/16 so she may compile and forward as a group to the promoter.

I look forward to speaking with you tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Laura

Jill - I'm confused by your email. The Special Administrator must be involved as a contracting party to license PRN IP for any promotional purpose, particular broadcasts at or recording of the live event, as well as for any merchandising to be sold at event. What is Bremer's position on this?

I'm getting texts and calls expressing confusion. We need to figure out what happened and Bremer should assist.

Best,

Please understand that we have worked hard to facilitate communications between the event promoters and family counsel. We want to remind you all that the Tribute, in its current form, is not an entertainment deal commissionable under the advisor agreement. The Special Administrator is not a party to any of these contracts nor is Mr. McMillan the Special Administrator's agent for purposes of this event given his co-promoter status. We encourage you to work directly with Mr. McMillan and his Public Relations representative Lois Najarian O'Neil to make this event successful.

All,

For what it's worth, our clients support whatever is most efficient, cost effective, and sensible given that the Tribute is less than 10 days away. Further, the Tribute Agreement entered into by the Promoter (Rand's company, Rose Productions), the Heirs and Londell supports the basis for Rand's/Rose Productions current position. Do we all need to get on the phone to discuss? It's unclear where we go from here and how this issue will be resolved. We don't want to risk sufficient merchandise not being available at the Tribute. Time is of the essence. Please let us know.

Best,
 Adam

I am not approving. I asked irving to call you. This makes no sense. Maybe he can help here. I don't need a third entity to step in. Firebrand is a third entity. The Museum already has trevor and Kirk sensitive to Prince wishes on design ideas. It just makes no sense bringing in another entity.

Museum can handle any overstock. We can oversupply the show for the fans and the family nets the best deal.

I explained same to Deb w Bremer and same to Jill their attorney.

Please adjust your thinking.

Subject: October 13 Official Family Tribute

Laura and Liz:

I know you are very busy right now, but we wanted to send a quick note to inquire about the status of the Official Family Tribute as it may impact our position about the Experts. We are receiving numerous inquiries from our clients who are very concerned because we do not have any details to provide them. We have also have had casual/general conversations with people, including some who are potentially directly involved (i.e, as talent) that progress has not been made, talent has not been secured, etc.

Others have heard rumors, which we have received second/third hand. In short, there is concern that the October 13 Tribute is on the precipice and that additional moves may put it in jeopardy. Ken and I believe that the October 13 Tribute is now largely in the hands of the promoter, not the Experts, and that the promoter is hard at work. You probably intended to provide a status report and detailed information during the meeting that was scheduled for this morning, but it would be very beneficial -- especially at this important moment -- to get as much detail as we can today about the status of the Tribute and confirmation that all is on track. In our industry, October 13 for an event of his magnitude is like, tomorrow.

Thanks!

Adam

Subject: RE: Tribute Concert Update

Jill,

This is disappointing and concerning. After responding to the emergency motion by your office, counsel for the heirs met yesterday and discussed the best way for us to proceed.

On behalf of my client, and I believed echoed by the other heirs, we would like to proceed with the Tribute as scheduled. Our group has substantial resources to assist on this matter, and appreciate your offer to allow us to bring those resources to what can still be a great event. As an initial matter, it would be extremely helpful that any and all documents and correspondences with regard to the Tribute be immediately uploaded to your HiQ site; including any and all communications to and from the "Monetization Experts." This will allow us to ascertain what help is needed and provide specific offers of assistance. It will also clear up rumors in the marketplace about the lack of communication to and confirmation of talent.

In addition, please provide any and all document, emails, etc. with regard to Jobu Presents; again, including any and all communications from the experts.

As a practical matter, this is consistent with what was discussed on Monday with Mr. Crosby, who agreed to provide any and all entertainment documents as they are received by your office. This would also be consistent with the guidance from the Judge, who yesterday questioned the current business protocol and the lack of time that it allowed the heirs and their counsel to review the terms and conditions of deals.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter. Please contact me with any questions.

Truly,

Steve

Subject: Tribute Concert Update

** CONFIDENTIAL ****

All

Given that there was not a beneficiary meeting today, we wanted to provide you with an update on the Tribute Concert.

1. Unfortunately, Jobu Presents notified us yesterday that it is unable to perform on its agreement and has terminated its agreement to serve as the promoter for the Tribute Concert. The primary reason that Jobu Presents cited for this is that the event is not a charitable event - this claim is not true. The claim was never developed and the agreement between Jobu Presents and the Estate makes no mention of it. The good news is that Jobu Presents did make the deposit payment to the Estate. BTNA will be evaluating legal claims that it may have against Jobu Presents.

2. As discussed at our last in-person meeting on August 16th, Charles and Londell have been reaching out directly to get artists on board and advised Jobu Presents of these efforts. Since we received notice of termination, Charles and Londell have continued to seek to secure the talent and expect to have a line-up to share tomorrow of confirmed artists (including many of the names that were shared at the meeting two weeks ago).
3. Once talent is committed, we (along with Londell and Charles) will then turn to engaging a promoter in place of Jobu Presents. We are also open to speaking to other promoters that the beneficiaries would like us to work with but need that information by mid-day Thursday.
4. In terms of the other pieces of the Tribute, the new promoter will be able to utilize other producers and partners that Jobu Presents had lined up and Charles and Londell are coordinating with them as well.

We will update you as additional information becomes available. Please note that Londell and Charles are focused on reorganizing to pick up the pieces from Jobu breach so that the Tribute Concert can proceed as schedule. As a secondary, but equally important matter, BTNA as Special Administrator will be evaluating legal recourse that the Estate may have against Jobu Presents for their breach of contract.

Thanks,
Jill

Hi Rand and Londell,

Please provide a copy of the settlement sheet for the concert so that we have a copy for the Estate files.

As you know, Bremer is the custodian of all of the PRN Tour information and to the extent that the information is requested Bremer should be in a position to refer to the information if nothing more than to refer to payments to PRO's for the public performances of the PRN or other compositions. In addition, it will be useful to have an official copy of the set list should the video be monetized in the future as contemplated and licenses would need to be obtained from the performers.

If you prefer that the settlement sheet be kept confidential please indicate and we can have it transferred to Bremer via a secured [REDACTED] portal for their eyes only which we can set up for you to upload it in that manner.

Re: Jobu Presents, LLC / In re the Estate of Prince Rogers Nelson

Dear David and Traci:

I have been retained as litigation counsel for Jobu Presents, LLC ("Jobu") with respect to its current dispute with the Estate of Prince Rogers Nelson (the "Estate"), its Trustee, Bremer Bank, and two of its representatives, Londell McMillan and Charles Koppelman. Please direct all correspondence going forward to my attention.

I write in conjunction with Kent Marcus' August 29, 2016 letter to Traci Bransford in a final effort to resolve this matter by agreement before filing suit. I also write in response to Mr. Crosby's September 8, 2016 letter in which he

In a final effort to resolve this dispute in its entirety, Jobu Presents, LLC demands the following:

1. Payment by the Estate to Jobu Presents, LLC in the amount of [REDACTED] Dollars, which represents my client's incurred, out-of-pocket damages. The payment would be due on or before October 31, 2016;
2. Comprehensive confidentiality and non-disparagement provisions in long-form agreement;
3. Rescission of the July 7 agreement;
4. Mutual releases; and
5. This agreement would supersede all prior agreements, written or oral (Integration Clause).

This offer remains open until 5 p.m. CDT on Monday, September 12, 2016 (the "Deadline") and can only be accepted by execution of this letter agreement on behalf of the Estate, Bremer Bank, Mr. McMillan and Mr. Koppelman and return to me by email before the Deadline. If the parties are unable to resolve this matter before the Deadline, I have been instructed to file suit on Tuesday.

David, I am authorized to accept Bremer's proposal on behalf of my client. I would appreciate your efforts to have Bremer pay the [REDACTED] by September 23 as an accommodation but can agree to the September 26 date as the final deadline for the [REDACTED] payment.

I will give some thought to potential locations and mediators. Let's plan to talk early next week regarding the same and mechanics for the payment.

Thanks,

Chris,

Good speaking with you. As we discussed, here is the proposal:

1. Bremer sends Jobu Presents [REDACTED] by September 26, 2016. This return of funds does not waive any rights by Bremer with respect to such funds or any potential claims against Jobu Presents, all of which are reserved. Your client, similarly, retains and reserves all potential rights and claims.
2. The parties agree to a mediation sometime in the second half of October. Bremer is flexible as to the selection of the mediator and the location of the mediation, though the parties will work jointly to reach agreement on these points.
3. Neither party will commence any litigation unless and until an impasse at the mediation is declared. If an impasse is declared, Bremer will not commence any litigation until 48 hours after such declaration.
4. The parties (and their agents) agree not to disparage each other (or their agents) pending the mediation.

Please let me know your client's response.

David

Chris,

As we discussed this afternoon, for a number of reasons, Bremer Trust, as Special Administrator of the Estate of Price Rogers Nelson, is unable to provide a substantive response to your letter of September 9, 2016 on the timeline you have requested. Bremer Trust will provide a substantive response to your letter by the close of business on Thursday, September 15, and it will also agree to not take any legal action against your client before 4:00 p.m. CDT on Monday, September 19, 2016. Please let me know if this timing is acceptable to your client. Hopefully, the parties can cooperatively work towards a solution to the issues relating to the concert in the coming days.

Regards,

David
