MEMORANDUM

The above entitled matter came on before the Honorable Kevin W. Eide on January 23, 2019, pursuant to a January 22, 2019 letter received from the Personal Representative expressing concerns over the possible disclosure of confidential Estate information. Now therefore, the Court makes the following:

ORDER

1. No Heir nor their agents shall disseminate confidential information of the Estate to any third party without either prior Court approval or approval of the Personal Representative.
2. By no later than February 8, 2019, any Heir wishing to advocate for the transaction referenced in the Personal Representative's letter of January 22, 2019 shall file and serve a confidential memorandum setting forth the details of the transaction. The memorandum should include the form and terms of the transaction, how the transaction would address the Estate's tax liabilities (including the tax lien), any compensation being provided to any party for facilitating the transaction, and how it relates to outstanding loans owed by the Heirs. The parties need not file a separate motion and memorandum asking that the document be filed under seal.
