Certificate of Commutation

To: Paul Schnell, Commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Corrections

Whereas Myon DeMarlo Burrell (DOB: March 31, 1986) was sentenced by the Hennepin County District Court in Case No. 27-CR-02-098794 to life plus twelve months for first-degree murder committed for the benefit of a gang, and consecutive sentences of 180 and 6 months for attempted first-degree murder and attempted first-degree murder committed for the benefit of a gang.

And Whereas application for a pardon or commutation of said convictions and sentences was duly made and filed with the Board of Pardons by Mr. Burrell.

And Whereas the Board of Pardons heard and considered the application on December 15, 2020. The Chief Justice of the Minnesota Supreme Court recused herself from hearing the application, and the remaining Board members unanimously determined that a commutation ought to be granted.

Now Therefore, the Board of Pardons of the State of Minnesota, for good and sufficient reasons and by virtue of the authority vested in it by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Minnesota, does hereby COMMUTE said sentences against Mr. Burrell as follows:

The sentence of life plus twelve months for first-degree murder is commuted to 20 years, with the remainder of that sentence to be served on supervised release under the authority of the Commissioner of Corrections. The consecutive sentences of 180 and 6 months for attempted first-degree murder are made concurrent to the 20-year sentence for first-degree murder. The Commissioner of Corrections is authorized to place Mr. Burrell on supervised release immediately and prior to the issuance of this certificate of commutation.

In Testimony Whereof, we, the members of the Board, have set our respective hands and caused the Seal of the Board of Pardons to be hereunto affixed.
