Family First Prevention Services Act Update for CJJ Teams

Description

The court review requirements of the Family First Prevention Services Act (FFPSA) were fully implemented in Minnesota on September 30, 2021. Since then, we've learned a lot about integrating Qualified Residential Treatment Program (QRTP) placement reviews within our child welfare case work. In this one-hour session, you'll hear a quick review of the FFPSA highlights and learn about best practices from around the state for managing cases involving a QRTP placement. CJE and CLE credits are available. For a complete look at what FFPSA is and the court's responsibilities in it, please review Family First Prevention Services Act recorded training for CJJ Teams and all child welfare stakeholders throughout the State of Minnesota on the Minnesota Judicial Branch website before attending this live session.

Learning objectives

When attendees have finished this course, they will be able to:

1. Describe what FFPSA is
2. Explain their role in the court's review of QRTP placement
3. Apply best practices from around the state for managing cases involving a QRTP placement
