6. Uninsured and Unreimbursed Medical and Dental Expenses for the Joint Children

"Uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental costs" are expenses not covered by insurance and not paid by medical assistance or MinnesotaCare. Examples include deductibles, co-pays, and procedures not covered by insurance or assistance. Usually, the parent with physical custody of the child will receive and pay the bill for the unreimbursed costs.

A. Petitioner A shall pay _____ % of the uninsured and/or unreimbursed medical and dental costs for the joint children of the parties, and Petitioner B shall pay _____% based on the percentage share of combined PICS (parental income for determining child support).

OR

- B. Reserving the issue of uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental costs.

The parent who paid the bill must tell the other parent to pay his/her percentage share. To ask for payment, send to the other parent a) a copy of the bill, b) evidence that you have paid the bill, and c) a letter requesting payment to you of your percentage share. This request for payment should be made promptly, and no later than 3 months after the bill is paid. If a request for payment is made after 3 months, there must be exceptional circumstances to support the late request for payment.

The person receiving the request for payment shall make the payment within 30 days. If there is a good reason to question the payment, send a letter to the other parent stating what additional information is needed, or why payment is disputed. If neither payment nor a written letter disputing payment is sent within 30 days of receiving the request for payment, then the unpaid bill can be considered back due child support.

If the parents are not able to work out payment problems, either parent can bring a motion in court asking the court to decide the dispute or asking the court to adjust how they divide the bills, based on changes in the incomes of the parties.

7. Child Care Support

- A. Petitioner A shall pay $ _____ per month for childcare expenses, and Petitioner B shall pay $ _____ per month for childcare expenses.

OR

- B. Reserving the issue of childcare expenses.

8. Conflict Resolution

The parties are not required to mediate before filing a motion with this court.

Any claim or controversy arising under this agreement that cannot be resolved by and between the parties through direct communication and without mediation shall promptly be submitted to mediation.

- A. Selection of Mediator. The mediator shall be agreed upon by the parties. If the parties cannot agree, then Petitioner A shall provide to Petitioner B a list of five qualified persons and Petitioner B shall pick one mediator from that list.
- B. Duties and Responsibilities of Mediator. The mediator shall have the duty and responsibility to assist the parties in resolving all issues submitted for mediation.
- C. Payment of Costs. Both parties shall share the mediator's fees and disbursements equally unless they mutually agree otherwise. The mediator shall provide the parties with his/her fee and disbursement schedule in advance of mediation.
- D. Confidentiality and Privilege. Within the limits of the law, the mediator will accord confidentiality and privilege to all communications with the parties.
- E. Restrictions. The mediator shall not participate as a witness, collateral contact or attorney in a custody or parenting time study or inquiry involving either party. Further, neither party may ever call the mediator as a witness to testify in any proceeding involving their children or the subject matter of the mediation.
- F. Compromise or Offers to Compromise During Mediation. State statutes shall be applicable throughout the entire process of mediation.
- G. Applicability of Dispute Settlement Procedures. The above procedure(s) shall apply to any claims or controversies regarding custody and parenting time. Preference shall be given to carrying out this plan. Unless an emergency exists, the parents shall use the designated process to resolve disputes relating to the implementation of the plan, except those related to financial support.
- H. Written Record and Right of Review. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in mediation and of each arbitration award and shall be provided to each party. The parties have the right of review from the dispute resolution process to the district court.
- I. Exhaustion of Remedies. The above procedure shall be followed before either party may apply to the court for relief.

9. Other: _____

BASED UPON THE ABOVE INFORMATION, Petitioner A and Petitioner B request that the Court issue an Order ordering the terms of this Agreement.

READ and SIGN the Acknowledgments.

Acknowledgment and Waiver of Counsel:

By signing below, I agree that I have read this agreement, I have considered it carefully, and I fully understand its terms. I understand that once this agreement is approved by a judicial officer, it will become an enforceable court order, and I agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. APPENDIX A

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO THE PARTIES:

I. PAYMENTS TO PUBLIC AGENCY. According to Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.50, payments ordered for maintenance and support must be paid to the Minnesota child support payment center as long as the person entitled to receive the payments is receiving or has applied for public assistance or has applied for support and maintenance collection services. Parents mail payments to: P.O. Box 64326, St. Paul, MN 55164-0326. Employers mail payments to: P.O. Box 64306, St. Paul, MN 55164.

II. DEPRIVING ANOTHER OF CUSTODIAL OR PARENTAL RIGHTS – A FELONY. A person may be charged with a felony who conceals a minor child or takes, obtains, retains, or fails to return a minor child from or to the child's parent (or person with custodial or parenting time rights), according to Minnesota Statutes, section 609.26. A copy of that section is available from any court administrator.

III. NONSUPPORT OF A SPOUSE OR CHILD – CRIMINAL PENALTIES. A person who fails to pay court-ordered child support or maintenance may be charged with a crime, which may include misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, or felony charges, according to Minnesota Statutes, section 609.375. A copy of that section is available from any district court clerk.

IV. RULES OF SUPPORT, MAINTENANCE, PARENTING TIME.

- A. Payment of support or spousal maintenance is to be as ordered, and the giving of gifts or making purchases of food, clothing, and the like will not fulfill the obligation.
- B. Payment of support must be made as it becomes due, and failure to secure or denial of parenting time is NOT an excuse for nonpayment, but the aggrieved party must seek relief through a proper motion filed with the court.
- C. Nonpayment of support is not grounds to deny parenting time. The party entitled to receive support may apply for support and collection services, file a contempt motion, or obtain a judgment as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 548.091.
- D. The payment of support or spousal maintenance takes priority over payment of debts and other obligations.
- E. A party who accepts additional obligations of support does so with the full knowledge of the party's prior obligation under this proceeding.
- F. Child support or maintenance is based on annual income, and it is the responsibility of a person with seasonal employment to budget income so that payments are made throughout the year as ordered.
- G. A Parental Guide to Making Child-Focused Parenting Time Decisions is available from any court administrator.
- H. The nonpayment of support may be enforced through the denial of student grants; interception of state and federal tax refunds; suspension of driver's, recreational, and occupational licenses; referral to the department of revenue or private collection agencies; seizure of assets, including bank accounts and other assets held by financial institutions; reporting to credit bureaus; income withholding, and contempt proceedings; and other enforcement methods allowed by law.
- I. The public authority may suspend or resume collection of the amount allocated for child care expenses if the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.40, subdivision 4, are met.
- J. The public authority may remove or resume a medical support offset if the conditions of section 518A.41, subdivision 16, are met.

V. MODIFYING CHILD SUPPORT. If either the obligor or obligee is laid off from employment or receives a pay reduction, child support may be modified, increased, or decreased. Any modification will only take effect when it is ordered by the court, and will only relate back to the time that a motion is filed. Either the obligor or obligee may file a motion to modify child support, and may request the public agency for help. UNTIL A MOTION IS FILED, THE CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION WILL CONTINUE AT THE CURRENT LEVEL. THE COURT IS NOT PERMITTED TO REDUCE SUPPORT RETROACTIVELY.

VI. PARENTAL RIGHTS FROM MINNESOTA STATUTES, SECTION 518.17, SUBDIVISION 3. UNLESS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BY THE COURT:

- A. Each party has the right of access to, and to receive copies of, school, medical, dental, religious training, police reports, and other important records and information about the minor children. Each party has the right of access to information regarding health or dental insurance available to the minor children. Presentation of a copy of this order to the custodian of a record or other information about the minor children constitutes sufficient authorization for the release of the record or information to the requesting party.

- B. Each party has the right to be informed by the other party as to the name and address of the school of attendance of the minor children. Each party has the right to be informed by school officials about the children's welfare, educational progress and status, and to attend school and parent teacher conferences. The school is not required to hold a separate conference for each party.
- C. Each party has the right to be notified by the other party of an accident or serious illness of a minor child, including the name of the health care provider and the place of treatment.
- D. Each party has the right to be notified by the other party if the minor child is the victim of an alleged crime, including the name of the investigating law enforcement officer or agency. There is no duty to notify if the party to be notified is the alleged perpetrator.
- E. Each party has the right of reasonable access and telephone contact with the minor children.

VII. WAGE AND INCOME DEDUCTION OF SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE. Child support and / or spousal maintenance may be withheld from income, with or without notice to the person obligated to pay, when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.53, have been met. A copy of that section is available from any court administrator.

VIII. CHANGE OF ADDRESS OR RESIDENCE. Unless otherwise ordered, each party shall notify the other party, the court, and the public authority responsible for collection, if applicable, of the following information within ten days of any change: residential and mailing address, telephone number, driver's license number, social security number, and name, address, and telephone number of the employer.

IX. COST OF LIVING INCREASE OF SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE. Basic support and / or spousal maintenance may be adjusted every two years based upon a change in the cost of living (using the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, consumer price index Mpls. St. Paul, for all urban consumers (CPI-U), unless otherwise specified in this order) when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.75, are met. Cost of living increases are compounded. A copy of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.75, and forms necessary to request or contest a cost of living increase are available from any court administrator.

X. JUDGMENTS FOR UNPAID SUPPORT. If a person fails to make a child support payment, the payment owed becomes a judgment against the person responsible to make the payment by operation of law on or after the date the payment is due, and the person entitled to receive the payment or the public agency may obtain entry and docketing of the judgment without notice to the person responsible to make the payment.

XI. JUDGMENTS FOR UNPAID MAINTENANCE.

- A. A judgment for unpaid spousal maintenance may be entered and docketed when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 548.091, are met. A copy of that section is available from any court administrator.
- B. The public authority is not responsible for calculating interest on any judgment for unpaid spousal maintenance. When providing services in IV-D cases, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.26, subdivision 10, the public authority will only collect interest on spousal maintenance if spousal maintenance is reduced to a sum certain judgment.

XII. ATTORNEY FEES AND COLLECTION COSTS FOR ENFORCEMENT OF CHILD SUPPORT. A judgment for attorney fees and other collection costs incurred in enforcing a child support order will be entered against the person responsible to pay support when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.735, are met. A copy of that section and forms necessary to request or contest these attorney fees and collection costs are available from any court administrator.

XIII. PARENTING TIME EXPEDITOR PROCESS. On request of either party or on its own motion, the court may appoint a parenting time expeditor to resolve parenting time disputes under Minnesota Statutes, section 518.1751. A copy of that section and a description of the expeditor process is available from any court administrator.

XIV. PARENTING TIME REMEDIES AND PENALTIES. Remedies and penalties for wrongful denial of parenting time are available under Minnesota Statutes, section 518.175, subdivision 6. These include compensatory parenting time; civil penalties; bond requirements; contempt; and reversal of custody. A copy of that subdivision and forms for requesting relief are available from any court administrator.

In addition to the Notices on pages 1 and 2, the following NOTICE applies to all orders addressing custody pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 518.17, subd. 3a.

NOTICE

EACH PARTY IS GRANTED THE FOLLOWING RIGHTS:

1. Right of access to, and to receive copies of, school, medical, dental, religious training, police reports, and other important records and information about the minor children.
2. Right of access to information regarding health or dental insurance available to the minor children.
3. Right to be informed by the other party as to the name and address of the school of attendance of the minor children.
4. Right to be informed by school officials about the children's welfare, educational progress and status, and to attend school and parent-teacher conferences. The school is not required to hold a separate conference for each party, unless attending the same conference would result in violation of a court order prohibiting contact with a party.
5. Right to be notified by the other party of an accident or serious illness of a minor child, including the name of the health care provider and the place of treatment.
6. Right to be notified by the other party if the minor child is the victim of an alleged crime, including the name of the investigating law enforcement officer or agency. There is no duty to notify if the party to be notified is the alleged perpetrator.
7. Right to reasonable access and telephone or other electronic contact with the minor children.
